main gallery – Group exhibition curated by Sidney Stephenson, second generation gallerist. ‘The premise for this exhibition is simple: a small selection of memorable works from Rocket exhibitions that I witnessed as a child and from artists who, often as family friends, were influential on my childhood.’

By default, this show is a thank you to artists who have shaped the aesthetic of Rocket Gallery throughout our almost 30 year tenure. In an age that focuses primarily on steadfast swarms of information and dubious narratives, these artists have consistently offered a moment away from the madness.

Carter Potter FYC

project gallery – the Los Angeles artist Carter Potter (b1961) presents new film-strip paintings under the title For your consideration. Potter earned a BA in 1987 and an MFA in 1990, both from UCLA. Although primarily a painter, his work also takes in a range of found objects and materials, most notably movie film. This is the artist’s second solo exhibition at Rocket after a hiatus of 22 years.

games room – ongoing exhibition of vintage screenprints & gallery artists

*The exhibitions open on Thursday 7 July 2022 from 6-9 and then by appointment until 18 February 2023
